Good afternoon

Thank you for your patience today, for monitoring your email and the website and not bombarding staff with phone calls. This has enabled us to focus on seeking the right clarification from the Local Authority and managing student anxieties, which have heightened today.

Following the email and statement from Gavin Williamson (Secretary of State for Education), see attached, the Local Authority have confirmed that special schools and colleges will remain open.

I can confirm that we will remain open to students and residents next week but ask you to continue to follow the Covid-19 advice:

Please continue to monitor the website and email for any changes.

Best wishes

Dr Tina Pagett
